FROM NASHVILLE The Trial of Henry Bruner. SEWING MACHINE Testimony of Wm. McKay Hoge and W. J. Cotts.

> LOUISVILLE, April 20.—Nashville, April 20.—In the Bruner case yester-duy, Col. Charles Irwin was examined in relation to the business conducted department. . McKay Hoge, formerly clerk in Wm. McKay Hoge, formerly clerk in Captain Irwin's office, and subsequent-ly at the Corral, under Mr. Bruner, was next called. He testified that he had given one false receipt to Wm. Dayis, for between 25 to 50 mules; three or four to Isham Henderson, one amounting to $22,000 to $23,000; one to W. R. Boyce; one to Daniel Henderson. He believed youchers were issued in each of the false receipts from the parties mentioned.

Court adjourned to procure the books.
Mr. Bruner.
To-day Wm. McKay Hoge was relled, and stated that he gave receipts r $23,000 to Isham Henderson; at enderson's request gave him several ceipts at different times, and he alavy insisted on witness giving receipts. ays insisted on witness giving receipts or more mules than were received. He also stated that Henderson told him ke was honorable to defraud the Governwas honorable to defraud the Government out of large amounts, but contemptible to cheat Government out of small sums. Witness received for issuing the false receipt to Henderson, $10,000. The proposition to issue false receipts was stated by witness to come from Henderson. False receipts were also given to Daniel Henderson, of Nashville, and W. R. Boyce, of Danville, Ky., the former for $12,000, and the latter for several comparatively small amounts. From D. Henderson, through another Party named George Barber, witness received $4,000, and from Boyce $2,500. Witness' highest salary while employed as clerk in the department, was $80,00 per month. He stated that he frequently gave receipts from Boyce $2,500. Witness' nigness sulary while employed as clerk in the department, was $80,00 per month. He stated that he frequently gave receipts for mules without seeing them, or as-certaining their number. Witness ertaining their number. Witness tated that Bruffer loaned him $6,000, at stated that Brufier loaned him $6,000, at his request, to cancel a mortgage on his father's estate. The testimony of witness entirely exculpated Bruner from any complicity in the issuing of fraudulent receipts, he having kept carefully concealed from him all knowledge of the transactions he had been engaged in, and that no false receipts had ever been given by him, with Bruner's knowledge or consent. At the corral of the Quartermaster's Department here witness issued receipts to contractors simply on their verbal statements.

NASHVILLE, April 21 .- The trial of Henry Bruner was resumed to-day. Wm. McKay Hogo continued his testi-nony, which elicited no new features ony, which elicited no new leatures good having applied to Bruner for e loan of seven thousand dollars, hich he did not get. W. J. Cotts was the next witness call-

W. J. Cotts was the next witness called, who corroberated Hoge's statement of his receiving ten thousand dollars from — Henderson. Witness was told by Hoge that he had made a false receipt, and the amount he received was his proportion. Witness afterwards saw Hoge with money which he informed him he had received from Havid Henderson, of this city. Hoge told witness that the manner of making money he had adopted was by giving false receipts to mule contractors. No further evidence of importance was obtained from witness. The entire ev-Ing laise receipts to mule contractors. No further evidence of importance was obtained from witness. The entire evidence goes to show that the issuing of fraudulent receipts was unknown to the accused party. Henry Bruner. The court adjourned until 3 o'clock on Monday in order to obtain the evidence of important witnesses who are now absent. It is reported that on Monday next the case of Ishan Henderson will be brought before the court for trial. O. A. Otis, of Nashville, has been retained as assistant counsel for the Government in the case of Henderson, and all subsequent cases which will be tried on fraud connected with this department. The partles accused charge that Hoge is testifying falsely in order to commit them and save himself from punishment, after having attempted extortion and failed.

HOUSE.

The proceedings of this day's session were, by order, confined to general debate on the President's message.

Mr. Nichotson, of Del., was the first speaker. He took strong grounds against the Constitutional Amendment in regard to representation. He contended that the effect of it would be to destroy the federal character of the government, to produce consolidation, and to subject the people to the worst kind of despotism, and that of constitutional majorities there was no propriety in it. The States themselves were the best judges as to what concerned their internal order and wellbeing. eing. He was followed by Mr. Perham who ook a directly opposite view of the uestion of reconstruction. He con-idered it of little importance whether he late rebel States were regarded as lead according to the views of some members of Congress, or as having fact remained that in either case it was the duty of Congress to provide for the establishment of State governments which should correspond with the spirit of those provisions of the Constitution requiring Congress to guarantee to the States a republican form of government. This was about what Congress had been going to do for the last five years with but partial success. It was the daty of Congress to see not only that new States to be admitted had such a form of government, but to guarantee to the old ones also. If there were not loyal men enough in the South to fill the offices some of the federal heroes of the war should be appointed to take part in the administration of the government of the States. fact remained that in either case i pointed to take part in the administra-tion of the government of the States, which they had saved by their valor. In these States the rebels were now in the ascendency, loyalty was the excep-tion and disloyalty the rule on whom devolved now the duty of deciding whether the late rebel States were in a condition to be represented in Congress, not in the Executive, No such power was delegated to him, not in the House of Representatives nor the Senate, act-ing independently of each other, but in the law making power of the Govern-ment it was the duty of Congress to take the whole subject into considera-tion as it was now doing, and to decide what guarantee should be required to
